

AGENDA

Pigg River, Poplar Branch, Fryingpan Beaverdam Creek Implementation Plan 2nd Community Engagement Meeting

June 25, 2024, 4PM

Meeting Purpose: Engage the public to provide feedback/ receive recommendations on the development of a Cleanup Plan for the Pigg River, Poplar Branch, Fryingpan Creek and Beaverdam Creek watershed in Franklin County, Pittsylvania County and Bedford County.

- Introduction
- Overview/Reminder of where we are in the Cleanup Plan development process
- BMP cost and timeline discussion for Pigg River, Poplar Branch and Fryingpan Creek Watersheds
 - Review proposed best management practices (BMP) to address agricultural, urban and residential sources of impairment.
 - Discuss timeline
 - Review # of BMPs, associated costs and overall costs per BMP type
- BMP cost and timeline discussion for discussion for Beaverdam Creek
 - Review proposed best management practices (BMP) to address agricultural, urban and residential and septic sources of impairment.
 - Discuss timeline
 - Review # of BMPs, associated costs and overall costs per BMP type
- Identification of Education and Outreach
- Additional Information
- Next steps:
 - Final Public Meeting in early September 2024
 - IP Draft available for review tentatively in mid-August
 - Anticipated final EPA approval by Winter 2024/Spring 2025
 - Eligible to apply for DEQ 319 funding in 2025, funds will be disbursed to accepted applicants in 2026

Contact information:

Kimberly Romero

Virginia Department of Environmental Quality, Blue Ridge Regional Office

Phone: 540-759-9075; Email: kimberly.romero@deq.virginia.gov