Ms. Sinclair,

Dominion Energy is currently preparing the information package in response to your letter dated September 4, 2024, requesting additional information in support of the air permit application for the Chesterfield Energy Reliability Center (CERC) project. However, Dominion respectfully requests an extension of the September 19, 2024 date to Friday September 27, 2024 to provide you with sufficient information. Please let us know if you have any questions. We appreciate your consideration allowing the additional time to prepare our information package.

Regards,
